Musical Childhoods of Asia and the Pacific agglomerates stories of young children ' s music and musicking from around Southeast Asia and the Pacific. A collection of truly unique traditions are interrogated through a variety of contemporary methodologies. Readers are privileged to hear about children ' s musical worlds from children, mothers ' musical worlds from mothers, a struggle to engage with music in a closed society, and new gender politics, among other stories. Researchers share experiences and insights gained from applying their chosen methodologies and add to the debate that shapes the continually transforming domain of music education research. Musical Childhoods builds on the diverse inquiry presented in the first three volumes in the series. This volume is an important addition to the libraries of colleges of education and schools of music, as well as music scholars and educators, researchers, and graduate students who are concerned with advancing both the scope and quality of research in the study of music teaching and learning.

Myanmar Media in Transition: Legacies, Challenges and Change is the first volume to overview the country ' s contemporary media landscape, providing a critical assessment of the sector during the complex and controversial political transition. Moving beyond the focus on journalism and freedom of the press that characterizes many media-focused volumes, Myanmar Media in Transition also explores developments in fiction, filmmaking, social movement media and social media. Documenting changes from both academic and practitioner perspectives, the twenty-one chapters reinforce the volume ' s theoretical arguments by providing on-the-ground, factual and experiential data intended to open useful dialogue between key stakeholders in the media, government and civil society sectors. Providing an overview of media studies in the country, Myanmar Media in Transition addresses current challenges, such as the use of social media in spreading hate speech and the shifting boundaries of free expression, by placing them within Myanmar ' s broader historic social, political and economic context.

Thant Myint-U's Where China Meets India is a vivid, searching, timely book about the remote region that is suddenly a geopolitical center of the world. From their very beginnings, China and India have been walled off from each other: by the towering summits of the Himalayas, by a vast and impenetrable jungle, by hostile tribes and remote inland kingdoms stretching a thousand miles from Calcutta across Burma to the upper Yangtze River. Soon this last great frontier will vanish—the forests cut down, dirt roads replaced by superhighways, insurgencies crushed—leaving China and India exposed to each other as never before. This basic shift in geography—as sudden and profound as the opening of the Suez Canal—will lead to unprecedented connections among the three billion people of Southeast Asia and the Far East. What will this change mean? Thant Myint-U is in a unique position to know. Over the past few years he has traveled extensively across this vast territory, where high-speed trains and gleaming new shopping malls are now coming within striking distance of the last far-flung rebellions and impoverished mountain communities. And he has explored the new strategic centrality of Burma, where Asia's two rising, giant powers appear to be vying for supremacy. At once a travelogue, a work of history, and an informed look into the future, Where China Meets India takes us across the fast-changing Asian frontier, giving us a masterful account of the region's long and rich history and its sudden significance for the rest of the world.

Drawing on extensive fieldwork, explores the contemporary pop music scene in this little understood Southeast Asian country.

It all starts with the release of fidgety, suspicious Percy Talbott from state prison after serving a five-year sentence. We don't know why, only that she's released and on her way to Gilead and its "colors of paradise." But when she arrives it is February and bitter cold, and the only one around to meet her is restless Sheriff Joe Turner, who takes her to the Spitfire Grill to help the aging Hannah Ferguson run the diner. All is gray, dismal and listless around them, and the characters are in the "winter of their lives" emotionally and spiritually.

The papers in this volume aim to contribute towards the redress of the neglect of the study of Burma's cultural history. Topics covered include prehistory, architecture, the cult of the nats, lacquer, illustrated manuscripts, mural paintings, sculpture and textiles.

Collection of five original short stories by Mat Sarovin: - Owned and Abused by my Straight Roommate- My Sleeping Friend's Feet- Owned and Abused by My Professor- My Swedish Flatmate, My Godly Obsession- My New Master, Ishai 1. Owned and Abused by my Straight Roommate Short erotica novel about a straight roommate who also happens to be a jerk. Warning: Includes power play, hatefucking, scenes of BDSM, strong smells, deep-throating, choking, gagging, foot play, alpha dominance and submission. 2. My Sleeping Friend's Feet Short erotica story about creeping on your friends' feet while they are sleeping. I always loved teasing my straight friends - trying to push them over their boundaries, forcing them to step out of their comfort zone. It was such a turn on for me. I had managed to jerk off together with one of my best friend, and had another even give me a blow job once. But Jasper - that little punk - he was unbreakable. One night, I made it my personal mission to make him drink more than he should, offering him to crash at my place for the night. We were sharing a bed, and he was lying there with his socked feet next to my face... I couldn't resist. Warning: contains explicit sex scenes between men, themes of foot worship, sniffing and licking dirty socks and sweaty feet, cum eating. 3. Owned and Abused by My Professor Short erotica story about sharing a hotel room with your an older, hot straight French professor and being caught sniffing his used socks and underwear, only to get punished accordingly..."What the fuck did you think you were doing?" he whispered to my ear. "You really think I'd risk my career and reputation for you useless, idiotic brat? (...) He released me from his grasp, took one of his shoe off, quickly removed his sock, and shoved it into my mouth with violence. He then spun me around, against the wall, and started fucking me bare." Warning: Includes explicit and hardcore sex scenes between two men (M/M) themes of power play, hatefucking, scenes of BDSM, sock sniffing, strong smells, foot play, choking, pissing / golden shower, cum licking, struggling, alpha dominance and submission. 4. My Swedish Flatmate, My Godly Obsession Short gay erotica story about fantasizing of licking your flatmates feet and worshipping him as your new God. The story follows a 27 y/o Italian guy who moved to London and started sharing a flat with a Swedish guy named Timo, whom is perceived as an embodiment of perfection and quickly becomes the protagonist's "God". Living together provides countless opportunities for voyeurism, stealing used underwear and socks, and temptations of all kinds... who hasn't been in a similar situation at least once? Warning: contains major fetish content (feet, socks, underwear) and hints of submission, slavery, omorashi, cum eating. 5. My New Master, IshaiGay short erotica novel about alpha male domination and finding one's purpose in pleasuring others. The protagonist of this story is a young man with a boring desk job who spends most of his time fantasizing about one of his co-workers, whom he seeks to become his "Arab Master". He eventually puts an ad on the internet looking for someone willing to turn his fantasies into reality... Warning: contains gay sex scenes, themes of domination, slavery, foot and shoe fetish, sensual violence.

The raincrow's warning rode upon a chill wind down the Kentucky mountainside to Katelin Stone that Indian Summer day. The rain would come, and her world as she knew it would end. There would be a new beginning for her. Her mother's death sets into motion the events that become her hell. Her father's surprise marriage brings into their home a calculating and money-grabbing woman and her troubled teenage son, who terrorizes Katelin with vicious attacks and cold-blooded threats that force her to forsake Walter, her true love, and at sixteen to marry a man she hardly knows. Her abusive marriage becomes her prison. She secrets her dreams and her love for Walter in a broken heart and almost loses herself after the consecutive deaths of her twin babies. Nurtured by loving friends, she finds renewed strength to escape her marriage and fulfill the promise made to her dying mother. But will she have the strength to overcome the paralyzing fear that keeps her from Walter's arms? "Southern fiction of often described as having a powerful sense of place. Acclaimed author and North Carolina's past Poet Laureate Fred Chappell defined Southern fiction as having eight elements: A deep involvement in place; family bonds; a celebration of eccentricity; a strong narrative voice; themes of racial guilt, human endurance, and local tradition; a sense of impending loss; a pervasive sense of humor in the face of tragedy; and an inability to leave the past behind. With precision and authenticity, JB Hamilton Queen and Louie Dillon cover all that ground in their first novel, Raincrow." – Madonna Dries Christensen– Author of Swinging Sisters and Masquerade; The Swindler Who Conned J. Edgar Hoover "Their writing is professional and inventive. Collaborative imagination is rare, but they pull it off." – Stuart M. Kaminsky–Mystery Writers of America Grand Master, Edgar winner, and author of more than fifty mystery novels.
